

STOCKHOLDERS OF TECOPA MINING HOLD MEETING

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Tecopa Consolidated Mining company, in Philadelphia, it was announced that an option to purchase seven-tenths interest in the Tecopa Consolidated had been given to the Tonopah Mining company. It was reported that J. E. Spurr, second vice president and advising engineer of the Tonopah Mining company, will examine this property in the near future.

The prospect of the control of this company passing from the N. Z. Graves interests to new hands caused some bidding for the stock at the close yesterday. The policy of the Tonopah Mining management is not to make any statement regarding any transaction until it has been completed.

The re-financing of the company will depend upon the report of J. E. Spurr, second vice president and advising engineer of Tonopah Mining, who is to make an examination of the property. If his report is in the affirmative it is planned to increase the capital stock of Tecopa from $3,000,000 to $10,000,000, and the Tonopah Mining is to receive two-thirds of the new stock in return for which it is to undertake the development of the property. It is understood, however, that before the stockholders obtain any benefit from such development the Tonopah Mining company is to get back out of earnings the amount it expends in development work, after which a claim of about $338,900 is to be satisfied. After this is accomplished the shareholders of the company, including Tonopah Mining, will get a share of the profits of the company.

In 1910 shares of Tecopa sold up to $1.45 and reports were circulated at that time that application would be made to list the stock on the Philadelphia stock exchange, while glowing reports were current as to the probable earning power of the company. Later, when the mine was shut down the stock dropped as low as six cents a share.

NEW DESERT INCORPORATION.

Yesterday there were filed at the office of County Clerk Pohl articles of incorporation of the Perpetual Sunshine Pleasure company, with an unlimited capitalization, to which every man, woman and child in Tonopah and the surrounding desert region was a subscriber. Books will be kept open for the balance of the season, and names will be received from everywhere from those who desire to join the desert denizens and become permanent abiders. The only requirements necessary are good character, healthful constitutions and civic pride, three elements which entitle the participant to become a member of the healthiest community on earth. Get in your name early and help swell the happy throng.

SILVER STILL CLIMBING.

Today's quotation for silver—58½—is the highest point the price of the white metal has reached for nearly four years, and it is now at a figure where many Nevada silver mines could be worked at a small profit if the price were maintained. But with the financiers manipulating the metal, as they have done for years past, it would be a somewhat hazardous proceeding to start up any of the old-time mines. That can never be done till the government steps in and puts a price on the article that will give its value some permanency.

QUARTZ SEAMS IN THE RESCUE-EULA WINZE

The winze from the north cross-cut of the Rescue-Eula has now reached a depth of nearly eighty feet, and the last few shifts' work has shown a number of quartz stringers in the formation. Whether or not these stringers carry values has not been announced by the management of the mine.

MARRIAGE A FAILURE.

COLUMBUS, Kan., Feb. 6.—At the age of 14, and after having been a wife two years, Beulah Scarborough says that marriage is an absolute failure. Being too young to file suit herself, she has had her mother, as next friend, bring action here asking that she be divorced.

"MYSTERY OF THE MAINE" AT THE BUTLER TONIGHT

"MYSTERY OF THE MAINE" TO BE PRESENTED THIS EVENING.

At the Butler theater this evening there will be only two shows; the first at 7 o'clock and the second at about 8:30 o'clock. The price of admission for this evening will be 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. The feature for tonight's show will be "The Mystery of the Battleship Maine," an educational picture in two reels. In conjunction with the picture there will be an interesting lecture given showing thirty interesting slides.

This subject was taken by permission of the United States government. Four other reels of pictures will be shown as follows: "The Big Dam," Edison; "Shipwrecked," a Selig picture; "The Alpine Lease," a Kalem, and "The Burglarized Burglar," Essanay comedy.

PRINTERS NOMINATED OFFICERS SUNDAY

Tonopah Typographical Union held a meeting Sunday afternoon, at which time the union endorsed candidates for international officerships. In the International Typographical union anyone may become a candidate upon receiving the endorsement of 50 unions. The election will be held in May. All elections are by ballot and this union is said to be the best example of popular control of any labor organization in the world. The union endorsed the present head officials: James Lynch, president; George Tracy, vice president, and J. W. Hays, secretary-treasurer. James M. Lynch has been president of the International Typographical union for thirteen years. He will undoubtedly be re-elected.

IN THE BANKRUPTCY COURT.

According to California papers, M. L. Effinger, the one-time successful mining promoter, is preparing to go through the bankrupt court. His liabilities are given at $86,000. During the Nevada boom days Effinger made a number of big deals, principal among which was the Pittsburg Silver Peak proposition, and from this alone he made a big fortune. Four years of panicky times, however, have done to him what it has done to many another former magnate.

DISPOSAL OF FORGERY CASES.

In the justice court this morning D. M. Black, charged with forgery, in having raised a check on the Nevada First National bank, was bound over to answer before the grand jury. His bail was placed at $5000, in default of which he was committed to the care of Sheriff Malley. The charge against his wife, who was arrested with him, was dismissed, the evidence adduced showing that she took no part in her husband's crooked work. In the proceedings before Judge H. H. Atkinson, District Attorney Sanders represented the people and John McNamara the defendants.

Rev. George Gallup left this morning for Goldfield.

CREW DESERTS WHEN STEAMER TAKES FIRE

WITH VALUABLE CARGO OF COTTON CONSOLS RUSHING TO HAMPTON ROADS.

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 6.—With a fire burning so fiercely in her hold that her crew could not stoke the boilers or run the engines, the British steamer Consols, of Liverpool, with a valuable cargo of cotton from Galveston, bound to Hampton Roads, Saturday is being towed with all possible speed to Hampton Roads.

Late Saturday, after wireless reports told the Consols was afire and needed assistance, the vessel was picked up by the British ship Castle Eden, from Savannah, bound to Danish ports. The United States battleship New Jersey, en route northward from Guantanamo, was near when the vessel was picked up and sent word by wireless of the rescue. The New Jersey's message said the Consols' crew had abandoned their vessel and gone on board the Castle Eden.

The Consols was discovered afire off Bodie Island on the North Carolina coast early Saturday. Wireless messages were sent the revenue cutter Onondago to find the distressed vessel.

PLEA IS MADE FOR A NATIONAL HEALTH BUREAU

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Robert L. Owen, United States senator from Oklahoma, made a plea for a national bureau of health, for which he has introduced a bill in congress, at the weekly luncheon of the republican club here Saturday.

"We spend millions in protecting the country from the gypsy moth, the boll weevil, the Texas tick, and the Canadian thistle," he said, "and take no active steps to safeguard the nation from other pests."

The senator said he was convinced that the desire for a national bureau of health was unanimous.

"Two hundred thousand children die in this country annually from preventable diseases," he said.

PARDON BOARD REVOKE PARDON OF CHAS. CLARK

The board of pardon met yesterday and revoked the pardon of Charles Clark, alias Ed Edwards.

It will be remembered that Clark was supposed to be in New York, according to letters sent here reporting each month, when in reality he was in California, and was arrested there for burglary. He was identified by his finger prints.
